

Lottery & Raffle Terms & Conditions

This document sets out the terms and conditions for the weekly lottery (pages 1-4) and raffles (page 5)

WEEKLY LOTTERY DRAW

Aims of the Hospice Lottery

The Hospice Weekly Lottery is a wholly owned subsidiary of Eden Valley Hospice and all profits from the company are gifted to the charity. We are a charity dedicated to providing specialist care to adults from the local area and children throughout Cumbria, as well as caring for their families, friends and carers. We believe that every detail, every moment and every person matters. This belief allows us to achieve the highest standards of nursing and medical care, to sustain quality of life and dignity and to give help to people when they need it most.

Joining and additional information

On receipt of your request to join the membership lottery, Eden Valley Hospice Lottery will send you an introduction letter advising you of your unique membership number(s) generated randomly by our approved secure membership software. If purchasing a single ticket, a ticket will be received at the point of purchase, this ticket will be on a separate receipt. The receipt will show the unique six-digit Lottery number and draw date.

Eden Valley Hospice reserves the right not to accept an application or to cancel any existing subscription at our discretion. Any such rejection or cancellation may be reconsidered on submission of a written appeal to the Lottery Manager within seven days. The decision of the Lottery Manager will be final.

It is the responsibility of the player to advise Eden Valley Hospice of any change of address or any other membership details.

If Eden Valley Hospice Lottery becomes aware that a player has moved from the address held on the database i.e. returned post marked gone away, and are unable to obtain new details, any returned winners cheques will be taken as a donation to Eden Valley Hospice after six months.

In line with Gambling Commission LCCP Licence Condition 15.2.2 - Other reportable events, Eden Valley Hospice Lottery, will inform the Gambling Commission if they become aware of a supporter who have gambled with them, and then subsequently died of suicide.

Cancellation

Cancellation of Lottery number(s) can be carried out at any time and Lottery number(s) will remain in the draw until the last round of £2 has been played. Upon cancellation any remaining odd pence amounting to less than £1 will be treated as a donation to Eden Valley Hospice. Cancellations must be notified to the Lottery office and if payment is made by Direct Debit or Standing Orders, to the players bank. If payment continues to be received, payment will be accepted as a donation to Eden Valley Hospice, unless an alternative instruction is given.

Deceased Players

Following notification that a Lottery player is deceased the Lottery number(s) will remain in the weekly draw until the last round of £2 has been played and any winnings will be made out to the 'Executors of'.

Eden Valley Hospice Lottery will accept instructions from next of kin to transfer the Lottery number(s) into their name straight away and can be played in memory of the deceased player. Proof of status may be required. Eden

Valley Hospice will accept instructions from the Executors to transfer the Lottery number(s) into a new name and can be played in memory of the deceased player, once the last round of £2 has been played.

If payments are made by Standing Order, the next of kin or Executor must cancel the instruction with the bank as Eden Valley Hospice Lottery is unable to do this. If payments continue to be received, payment will be accepted as a donation to Eden Valley Hospice, unless an alternative instruction is given.

Cost of entry

In return for your subscription payment, your unique membership number(s) will be entered into the weekly draw carried out normally every Friday. The weekly cost of entry is £2 in advance.

For weekly entries, Lottery numbers are a randomly selected six-digit unique number, selected from a number range created and approved by an approved secure Lottery system.

If purchasing a single ticket via our hospice retail shops/reception. Your ticket number is only entered in the draw for that week's draw. For single tickets, the Lottery numbers allocated from tickets sold in shops are sequentially selected from a pre-set number range provided by the Lottery office and held by our till provider.

Multiple Entries

You can purchase a maximum of 20 tickets per week.

Payment Frequency

Payments can be made annually, half yearly, quarterly, monthly or as a weekly single ticket (in our Eden Valley Hospice Shops / reception)

Player Types

Individual – Any winnings will be made payable to the named person.

Gift – Lottery Gift Vouchers are available to purchase over the phone, or by emailing: lottery@edenvallyhospice.org. The minimum gift voucher purchase amount is £10. Both the purchaser and the recipient must satisfy the terms and conditions.

Privacy and data protection

Eden Valley Hospice complies with all Data Protection Act requirements and promises to protect your personal data and not to misuse it. When you pay your lottery subscription, your personal data, bank information will be stored in a secure location within our premises or on our server.

If you have any concerns regarding the security of this system please email us at lottery@edenvallyhospice.org Eden Valley Hospice cannot accept liability for the loss or delays in or theft of any communication sent by post, email or fax, or for any delays in the banking system.

Age verification and location

It is against the law for anyone under the age of 18 years to participate in a lottery. A player must be a resident of Great Britain to play. The requirements of the Gambling Act 2005 mean that Eden Valley Hospice now has a statutory duty to verify that you are 18 years old or over. Where appropriate we shall carry out checks to verify this.

Members Funds

We are required by a condition on our licence issued by the Gambling Commission, to advise you that customer funds are not protected in the event of insolvency. However, Eden Valley Hospice and its lottery trading subsidiary are well funded and we do not see insolvency as a likely event in the foreseeable future.

Debit card information

Eden Valley Hospice promise to only use your debit card information to process payments. Once processed it is destroyed.

Credit Cards

We cannot accept credit card payments on any of our gambling products remotely. This includes over the phone and online. Single tickets purchased in shops are exempt from this rule.

Cancellation

If you wish to cancel your membership you may do so at any time. Please contact the office on 01228 817614 or email us on lottery@edenvallyhospice.org. If you are in credit at the time of cancellation, your Eden Valley Hospice Lottery membership shall cease once your credit has expired.

Prizes and notification

The draw takes place each Friday, however should circumstances beyond Eden Valley Hospice Lotteries control, dictate, the draw may take place on another day. In extreme circumstances, such as a pandemic, the draw may have to be postponed. Players will be kept up to date on the Eden Valley Hospice Website.

You will be notified in writing of any prize that you win within one week of the draw. A cheque for your prize amount will be sent with your notification letter. Our winning weekly numbers are published on our website or you can call the Lottery office on 01228 817614.

Winners are selected by a random number generator in the Lottery software; donorflex is fully licensed and regulated by the Gambling Commission and their Random Number Generator has been independently tested, using a variety of industry-standard statistical tests.

Prize Structure

1st Prize - £1000

*2nd Prize - £100 (our Rollover prize up to £10,000)

3rd Prize - £50

4th Prize – 55 x £10

*The Rollover prize will become the 1st prize once it is greater than £1000 and the £1000 1st prize will become 2nd prize.

Any uncashed winning cheques after a period of six months are donated to the Hospice. Winners can automatically donate their winnings back to the Hospice, by completing the back of the winning cheque and returning it to the Hospice.

Right to amend

Eden Valley Hospice reserves the right to amend or modify these terms and conditions without notice.

Self-exclusion policy

An instruction to be self-excluded, as defined in the Gambling Act 2005, from the Eden Valley Hospice Lottery weekly draw or any other one-off prize draws that Eden Valley Hospice Lottery may organise, may be submitted in writing, by email, by fax or by phone to the Eden Valley Hospice Lottery office.

Self-excluded customers will not be sent any one-off prize draw tickets unless we have been notified otherwise. Customers wishing to use this facility will not be able to rejoin the lottery for a minimum of 6 months from the date of exclusion.

Complaints

All complaints and disputes shall be dealt with in accordance with the Eden Valley Hospice policy. A copy of the policy can be obtained by contacting our lottery office.
