

'Our Cumbria' Photography Competition

Terms and Conditions

- A high-resolution copy of the image should be submitted for use in print.
- The person submitting the image will retain all rights to any photograph/s and by submitting the image/s, the entrant is confirming they own the copyright to the image, and it has been taken with the permission of the subject and do not infringe the copyright of any third party or break any laws.

Upon submission, the entrant will grant Eden Valley Hospice and Jigsaw, Cumbria's Children's Hospice rights (as described below) to the photograph, for the following uses:

1. To use the photograph/s in our 2026 Christmas retail products, namely calendars, Christmas cards and other associated products
 2. To use the photograph/s in an editorial capacity in the media, newsletters, social media, presentations, website, email campaigns, public displays and any other channels available to the charity
 3. To use in conjunction with promoting the retail products for sale, which could include appearing in brochures, advertisements, posters and more
 4. Any other fair use deemed necessary by the charity
- Additional Information
- The competition is open to anyone, as long as the image/s submitted depict Cumbria.
 - The image must be recent, ideally taken within the last two years.
 - Submissions will be deemed null and void if the necessary contact information has not been provided along with the image.
 - A judging panel made up of charity staff/volunteers will choose the winning images and their decision is final.
 - Winners will be announced on 1st July 2025 and will be contacted by the charity informing them of the decision.
 - Credits for photographs will be used wherever possible.

